 N CATALOGING this herd of cattle I do so feeling that the breed is rich enough to please the most critical. Dr. Emeny has been in the business only five years but bought the best and best bred to start with. His bull COUNT AVONDALE is one of the best sons of AVONDALE and was the highest priced bull ever sold by Carpenter & Ross when Dr. Emeny purchased him. When looking over the herd at Eldora in 1915 I considered it one of the very best in the state of Iowa, but since then Dr. Emeny has been badly handicapped for lack of help and suitable accommodations for his herd, consequently, the cattle are not looking their best but are improving rapidly on pasture and I believe will be appreciated on day of sale.

TERMS of this sale are cash unless arrangements are made for time prior to the sale.

All cattle will be cared for and loaded on board the cars to destination free of charge. Certificates of health will be furnished with cattle sold to go to States requiring them.

Mr. Ora D. Edick, manager for Dr. Emeny, says that all of the females of breeding age have calves at foot or are safe in calf, most of them having been bred in pasture to the bulls COUNT AVONDALE and CLUNY ROYAL WINDSOR.

No further guarantee will be given as to their future usefulness as Dr. Emeny is closing out the entire herd and I believe that those attending the sale can see for themselves by the calves at foot and appearance of the cows that they are well along in calf and that they are a good, honest, useful lot of cattle.

Respectfully,

P. G. ROSS.

A beautiful roan, full brother to the International grand champion, COUNT AVON, owned by C. F. Curtis, Ames, Iowa. COUNT AVONDALE is rated by Carpenter & Ross as one of the very best sons of AVONDALE. He stood third at the International as a junior yearling, where he was shown at a great disadvantage; this is the only show he ever made, but had he been shown as a 4-year-old it is doubtful if there was a bull in North America that could question his right to be grand champion anywhere. He is now being sold in thin condition, but is sure and active and all right in every way; he has plenty of bone, a beautiful color and perfect conformation.

SHORT HORN CATTLE AND SCOTCH COLLIE DOGS

Mansfield, O.
Trunk Line City

August
First,
1918.

Mr. W. W. Neely,
Greenfield, Iowa.

Dear Sir:-

Your inquiry for sale catalog received. We are sorry we did not get the catalogs out sooner -- were delayed expecting to include a bunch of cattle which Mr. Ross purchased in Iowa, but found it impossible to get the pedigrees here in time. These cattle may be in the sale; twenty of them are excellent Scotch heifers and of good breeding. The cattle owned by Dr. Emeny will be found to be in very medium condition, but they are of excellent breeding and fit to go in any herd. The few we have included from Mansfield are a nice, thrifty, well-bred lot; we had no intention of selling them but they were added to make up numbers.

Trusting to be favored with your presence at this sale, we are,

Yours very truly,
